Statement of intent

At Bedford Hall Methodist Primary School, we recognise our school context and have designed our curriculum with the intent that pupils build the secure foundations required to become successful and aspirational adults who seek opportunities, take responsibilities as moral citizens and gain life experiences that extend their horizons. We want children to leave school as 'well rounded' individuals.

The breadth of our curriculum is designed with three goals in mind:

- To give pupils rich and appropriate experiences to develop into confident and responsible citizens;
- To provide a rich 'cultural capital' to provide them with the skills and knowledge to prepare them for life within and beyond Leigh;
- To provide a coherent, structured and progressive curriculum that leads to sustained mastery for all and a greater depth of understanding for those who are capable.

We have developed three curriculum drivers that shape our curriculum, bring about the aims and values of our school, and to respond to the particular needs of our community:

Culture – which helps children develop a wider and deeper knowledge of the locality, society and the world around them, promoting a sense of awe and wonder.

Possibilities – which helps children to build aspirations and know available possibilities for the future lives, so they can live life in all its fullness.

Diversity – which helps children recognise differences are positive and that individual characteristics make people unique and everyone should love and be loved without limits.

At Bedford Hall Methodist Primary School, we understand the need to continually deliver high quality education, including during periods of remote working – whether for an individual pupil or many. The school vision 'Learn, Love, Live: Without Limits' is interwoven within our curriculum intent and design. We recognise the importance of maintaining high expectations in all areas of school life and ensuring that all pupils have access to the learning resources and support they need to succeed.

Through the implementation of this policy, we aim to:

- Minimise the disruption to pupils' education and the delivery of the curriculum.
- Teach a planned and well-sequenced curriculum so that knowledge and skills are built incrementally, with a good level of clarity about what is intended to be taught and practised in each subject.
- Set tasks and activities so that pupils have meaningful and ambitious work each day in a number of different subjects which reflects the curriculum which would be taught in school.

- Ensure provision is in place so that all pupils have access to high quality learning resources and strategies –which are consistently applied across school.
- To be responsive to children’s learning to enable teachers to adjust the pace or difficulty of what is being taught in response to questions or assessments.
- To adapt work to ensure the accessibility for all pupils; especially children with SEND.
- Provide printed resources, such as workbooks, for pupils who do not have suitable online access.
- Ensure all pupils have the provision they need to complete their work to the best of their ability, and to remain happy, healthy, and supported during periods of remote learning.
- Remain in communication with parents using Class Dojo
- To set work on the learning platforms Class Dojo and Purple Mash and provide feedback to children around their learning and next steps.

2. Rationale and Considerations

The temporary provisions in the Coronavirus Act 2020 expired on 24 March 2022. As a result, the Remote Education (England) Temporary Continuity (No.2) direction no longer has effect. This policy reflects the non-statutory guidance to schools from January 2023 on maintaining their capabilities to deliver high quality remote education in cases where it is not possible or contrary to government guidance for some or all pupils to attend face-to-face education. The priority is always for schools to deliver high-quality face-to-face education to all pupils.

As stated within the guidance, 'Attendance is essential for pupils to get the most out of their school experience, including for their attainment, wellbeing, and wider life chances. Remote education should not be viewed as an equal alternative to attendance in school.'

Scenarios where Remote Learning might be required:

Attendance is mandatory for all pupils of compulsory school age. Schools should consider providing remote education to pupils in circumstances when in-person attendance is either not possible or contrary to government guidance.

This might include:

- Occasions when school leaders decide that it is not possible for their setting to open safely, or that opening would contradict guidance from local or central government
- Occasions when individual pupils, for a limited duration, are unable to physically attend their school but are able to continue learning, for example pupils with an infectious illness or in some exceptional cases, these circumstances might also include pupils whose attendance has been affected by a special educational need or disability (SEND) or a mental health issue. In these circumstances, and after the pupil's absence from school has been established, schools should consider providing pupils with remote education on a case-by-case basis. This should be part of a plan to reintegrate back to school, and only when it is judged that providing remote education would not adversely affect the pupil's return to school.

Providing remote education will not change the imperative to remain open or to reopen as soon as possible. Every effort will be made to ensure pupils can be taught in person by attending their school or if appropriate and possible, attending a safe alternative site. After exploring all options to ensure the school remains open to all pupils, there may still be some exceptional occasions when school leaders or the local authority decide that it is not possible to open safely, or where opening would contradict guidance from local or central government.

In these circumstances pupils should have access to remote education as soon as reasonably practicable, though in proportion to the length of absence and disruption to their learning.

Where needed, remote education should be equivalent in length to the core teaching pupils would receive in school and including recorded or live direct teaching time, as well as time for pupils to complete tasks and assignments independently.

Good practice is considered to be:

- 3 hours a day on average across the cohort for key stage 1, with less for younger children
- 4 hours a day for key stage 2

What to consider when providing remote education to individual pupils:

When a pupil is absent, the school should always seek to overcome the barriers to attendance and provide support for the pupil to attend, regularly reviewing any barriers in conjunction with the pupil, parents or carers, and if appropriate, a relevant medical professional. Remote education should not be viewed as an equal alternative to attendance in school, and providing remote education during a pupil's absence does not reduce the importance of bringing that absence to an end as soon as possible.

In the limited circumstances when the school decides to use remote education for individual pupils when they are absent, the following should be considered:

- Ensuring mutual agreement of remote education by the school, parents or carers, potentially pupils, and if appropriate a relevant medical professional. If the pupil has an Education, Health and Care plan or has a social worker, the local authority should also be involved in the decision.
- Where remote education is being used as part of a plan to reintegrate back to school, putting a formal arrangement in place to review its efficacy regularly, alongside identifying what other support and flexibilities can be put in place to help ease the pupil back to school at the earliest opportunity.
- Setting a time limit within which the period of remote education provision should be reviewed, with the aim that the pupil returns to in person education with the required support in place to meet their needs.

4. Resources

Learning materials

The school will take a blended approach to learning. This means a range of remote teaching techniques will be utilised to revisit prior learning, explain new learning and address misconceptions. It also means that sufficient time will be provided for children to practise their skills and deepen their knowledge independently before moving on.

All pupils will have access to high-quality education through our blended approach. The school will continue to use a range of teaching platforms to offer an inclusive yet suitably challenging curriculum for all pupils, which is closely aligned to the content and delivery of lessons that would take place on site.

Communication between home and school is key for effective blended learning to take place. Teachers will use parental feedback to further support pupils' diverse individual and family needs. Our central platform for communication between teachers and parents is Class Dojo (all years including nurseries).

Resources used to support blended learning include, but are not limited to:-

- Purple Mash (individual pupil log ins)
- LBQ (individual pupil log ins)
- TT Rockstars (individual pupil log ins)
- Microsoft Education (for live lessons only – individual pupil log ins)
- Pre-Recorded video and audio sessions via school staff (accessed via Class Dojo or Purple Mash)
- Recommended Educational Websites e.g. Oak Academy, BBC Bitesize (no log in required)
- Paper-based Home Resources Packs
- Paper-based Learning Aids and Prompt Sheets

The school will review the DfE's guidance on where schools can source educational resources to assist with the delivery of remote education, and utilise these as appropriate. Teachers may review the DfE's list of online education resources and utilise these tools as necessary, in addition to existing resources.

Reasonable adjustments will be made to ensure that all pupils have access to the resources needed for effective blended learning.

Lesson plans will be adapted to ensure that the curriculum remains fully accessible and inclusive via blended learning whilst aligning to the curriculum content projected for on-site delivery.

The school will review the resources pupils have access to and adapt learning to account for all pupils' needs by using a range of different formats.

Paper-based resource packs will be provided to pupils who do not have access to a printer – these packs will be posted out by school.

Teaching staff will liaise with the Inclusion Manager and other relevant members of staff to ensure all pupils remain fully supported for the duration of the blended learning period.

The Inclusion Manager will arrange additional support for pupils with SEND which will be unique to the individual's needs. Teaching staff will implement more individualised planning, in liaison with the Inclusion Manager, for pupils with SEND where appropriate – the Inclusion Manager will also contact the pupil's parents to see how the pupil can be supported by adults while learning remotely.

Pupils will be required to use their own or family-owned equipment to access remote learning resources, unless (where the child is eligible) the school agrees to provide or loan equipment, e.g. laptop.

Pupils and parents will be required to maintain the upkeep of any equipment they use to access remote learning resources.

Teaching staff will oversee academic progression for the duration of the blended learning period and will mark and provide feedback on work in line with section 7 of this policy.

If the school decide to use any 'live' lessons, e.g. webinars, will be communicated via class dojo no later than one working day before the allotted time and kept to a reasonable length of typically 15 minutes per session. These sessions take a range of focuses including, but not limited to: providing lesson input, providing intervention or feedback around learning.

Costs and expenses

The school will not contribute to any household expenses incurred while pupils learn remotely, e.g. heating, lighting, or council tax.

The school will not reimburse any costs for travel between pupils' homes and the school premises.

The school will not reimburse any costs for childcare.

If a pupil is provided with school-owned equipment, the pupil and their parent will sign and adhere to the Acceptable ICT Agreements prior to commencing remote learning.

5. Online safety

This section of the policy will be enacted in conjunction with the Trust's Online Safety Policy.

Where possible, all interactions will be textual and public.

If the school choose to use any form of video communication, including live lessons for teaching and learning, all staff and pupils must adhere to the following points below. Please note, live lessons will only be used as deemed appropriate, through the school's learning platform, in order to enhance learning; such as delivering a group intervention or part of a lesson:

- Live streaming should only be used on Microsoft Team (with all appropriate locks on)
- The school and IT support (Abtec) have audited the settings first (who can chat? Who can start to stream? Who can join?); to ensure all safety measures are in place.
- Communicate in groups – one-to-one sessions are not permitted.
- Wear suitable clothing – this includes others in their household.
- Be situated in a suitable 'public' living area within the home with an appropriate background – 'private' living areas within the home, such as bedrooms, are not permitted during video communication. There should be no inappropriate objects or information visible.

- Use appropriate language – this includes others in their household.
- Maintain the standard of behaviour expected in school.
- Use the necessary equipment and computer programmes as intended.
- Not record, store, or distribute video material without permission.
- Ensure they have a stable connection to avoid disruption to lessons.
- Always remain aware that they are visible.
- No eating is permitted by pupils /staff during a live lesson.
- An adult SHOULD BE PRESENT and visible on the screen with the child at all times during the lesson.
- Teachers will make contact with pupils at least twice a week in the event of a lockdown.
- The school will decide on a set of ground rules for usage which will be shared with staff. E.g. when a pupil can speak and how.
- Staff and pupils will only use their school-registered accounts to access learning platforms, e.g. Purple Mash. Personal accounts must not be used under any circumstances for the purpose of distance learning within school.
- Secure password accounts must not be shared with any other household and can only be used by pupils for internal use. However, if a child lives in more than one household, they may use the same login details at both addresses.
- Teachers who stream a live lesson should always have another member of staff 'in the room' and never start without them. Lessons should never start without the Headteacher or member of SLT being aware this is taking place.
- Teachers should introduce themselves and the accompanying staff member, who should be visible to the children and should wear their school lanyard throughout the session.
- Teachers will keep a log of any live lessons, recording what, when, with whom and anything that went wrong. Report to a DSL /SLT immediately if any concerns.
- Where possible, teachers will try to adapt /differentiate the lesson to suit the needs of different learners – however this may not always be possible.
- All online lessons will be recorded by staff for safeguarding and professional development purposes. Children are NOT permitted to record or screenshot any part of the live lesson.
- Children will not be able to contact each other when staff are not present on line.
- Children will be given clear rules at the start of each session and will be given the opportunity to respond appropriately. If there is any inappropriate or disruptive behaviour, the teacher may ask the child to leave the session.
- Children must always be respectful to teachers and fellow pupils as they would be in a classroom session.

- Pupils MUST leave at the end of the session once instructed to do so. The teacher MUST BE the LAST person in the meeting to leave.
- Parents and pupils will be asked to sign a 'Live Learning and Conduct' Agreement before being allowed to access 'live learning' platforms. (see Appendix 3)

All staff and pupils using audio communication must:

- Use appropriate language – this includes others in their household.
- Maintain the standard of behaviour expected in school.
- Use the necessary equipment and computer programmes as intended.
- Not record, store, or distribute audio material without permission.
- Ensure they have a stable connection to avoid disruption to lessons.
- Always remain aware that they can be heard.

The school will consider whether one-to-one sessions are appropriate in exceptional circumstances, e.g. to provide support for pupils with SEND. This will be decided and approved by the SLT, in collaboration with the Inclusion Manager.

Pupils not using devices or software as intended will receive a consequence in line with the school's Positive Behaviour Policy.

The school will risk assess the technology used for remote learning prior to use and ensure that there are no privacy issues or scope for inappropriate use.

The school will consult with parents where appropriate prior to the period of remote learning about what methods of delivering remote teaching are most suitable – alternate arrangements will be made where necessary.

The school will ensure that all school-owned equipment and technology used for remote learning has suitable anti-virus software installed, can establish secure connections, can recover lost work, and allows for audio and visual material to be recorded or downloaded, where required.

The school will communicate to parents via letter and Parentmail about any precautionary measures that need to be put in place if their child is learning remotely using their own/family-owned equipment and technology, e.g. ensuring that their internet connection is secure.

During the period of remote learning, the school will maintain regular contact with parents to:

- Reinforce the importance of children staying safe online.
- Ensure parents are aware of what their children are being asked to do, e.g. sites they have been asked to use and staff they will interact with.

- Encourage them to set age-appropriate parental controls on devices and internet filters to block malicious websites.
- Direct parents to useful resources to help them keep their children safe online.
- Check the well-being of their children and provide appropriate support as required.

The school will not be responsible for providing access to the internet off the school premises and will not be responsible for providing online safety software, e.g. anti-virus software, on devices not owned by the school.

6. Safeguarding

This section of the policy will be enacted in conjunction with Bedford Hall Methodist Primary School's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy.

- The DSLs and Headteacher will identify 'vulnerable' pupils (pupils who are deemed to be vulnerable or are at risk of harm) via risk assessment prior to the period of remote learning.
- The DSLs and Headteacher will arrange for regular contact to be made with vulnerable pupils, prior to the period of remote learning.
- Phone calls made to vulnerable pupils will be made using school number app or a school phone. Personal phone number must NEVER be used.
- The DSL will arrange for regular contact with vulnerable pupils once per week at minimum, with additional contact, including home visits, arranged where required.
- All contact with vulnerable pupils will be recorded and suitably stored in line with data protection policy using CPOMs and Microsoft teams.

prior to the period of remote learning. E.g. share WORK telephone numbers and WORK e-mail addresses ONLY.

The DSL will meet (in person or remotely) with the relevant members of staff once per week to discuss new and current safeguarding arrangements for vulnerable pupils learning remotely.

All members of staff will report any safeguarding concerns to the DSL immediately.

Pupils and their parents will be encouraged to contact the DSL if they wish to report safeguarding concerns, e.g. regarding harmful or upsetting content or incidents of online bullying. The school will also signpost families to the practical support that is available for reporting these concerns.

7. Data protection

This section of the policy will be enacted in conjunction with the school's Data Protection Policy.

- Staff members will be responsible for adhering to the GDPR when teaching remotely and will ensure the confidentiality and integrity of their devices at all times. Staff members will use the school's remote access system when accessing video and audio communication for remote learning so it can be tracked on the school's device monitoring and management device e.g. Senso.
- Sensitive data will only be transferred between devices if it is necessary to do so for the purpose of remote learning and teaching.
- Any data that is transferred between devices will be suitably encrypted or have other data protection measures in place so that if the data is lost, stolen, or subject to unauthorised access, it remains safe until recovered.
- Parents' and pupils' up-to-date contact details will be collected prior to the period of remote learning.
- All contact details will be stored in line with the Data Protection Policy.
- The school will not permit paper copies of contact details to be taken off the school premises.

8. Marking and feedback

All schoolwork completed through remote learning must be:

- Returned on or before the deadline set by the relevant member of teaching staff; usually by the end of the day or straight after a session.
- Completed to the best of the pupil's ability.
- The pupil's own work.
- Marked in line with the Feedback Policy.

The school expects pupils and staff to maintain a good work ethic during the period of remote learning.

Pupils are accountable for the completion of their own schoolwork – teaching staff will contact parents via Class Dojo (or telephone call) if their child is not completing their schoolwork or their standard of work has noticeably decreased.

Teaching staff will monitor the academic progress of pupils with and without access to the online learning resources and discuss additional support or provision with the Headteacher or Inclusion Manager as soon as possible.

Teaching staff will monitor the academic progress of pupils with SEND and discuss additional support or provision with the Inclusion Manager as soon as possible.

The school accepts a variety of formative assessment and feedback methods, e.g. through quizzes and other digital tools from teachers, and will support them with implementing these measures for remote learning where possible.

9. Health and safety

This section of the policy will be enacted in conjunction with the Trust's Health and Safety Policy.

- Teaching staff will ensure pupils are shown how to use the necessary equipment and technology safely and correctly prior to the period of remote learning.
- If using electronic devices during remote learning, pupils will be encouraged to take a five-minute screen break every hour.
- Screen break frequency will be adjusted to ten minutes every hour for younger pupils or pupils with medical conditions who require more frequent screen breaks.

- If any incidents or near-misses occur in a pupil's home, they or their parents are required to report these to the class teacher immediately so that appropriate action can be taken.

10. School day and absence

- Children will be set a daily / weekly timetable of activities to complete. These will, wherever possible, follow the timetables pupils would follow in school.
- Pupils are expected to complete work set daily within school hours. There is an expectation that children have regular breaks in the morning, afternoon and at lunchtime.
- Pupils are not expected to do schoolwork outside the school times of 8:45am and 3.15pm.
- Pupils with SEND or additional medical conditions who require more regular breaks, e.g. sensory breaks, are not expected to do schoolwork during their breaks.

Appendix 1

Dear Parent /carer,

Re: Remote Learning Update

In individual circumstances, where your child is absent but is feeling well, we will set home learning tasks from the second day of absence. Tasks will be set through Class Dojo. You will receive a daily timetable which will link to current learning in class.

As you know, if a year group must close, we will be delivering all of our learning remotely from the first day of closure. This will be via the learning platforms, Class Dojo and Purple Mash. School will be taking a blended approach to learning using a range of teaching strategies and resources. In some circumstances, we may also be using the Remote Learning Platform, 'Microsoft Education' for live lessons. Your account details for the above platforms have or will be distributed to families by teachers. The secure accounts or passwords must not be shared with other households and can only be used by the pupil for school use. However, if your child lives in more than one household, they may use the same login details at both addresses. Pupils are not to use any other account under any circumstances for the purposes of remote learning.

In order to make this process as effective and as engaging as possible we are utilising a variety of new technologies and teaching strategies. Where deemed appropriate to further enhance learning, staff will be making use of pre-recorded and live lessons. This is going to be an important element of our remote teaching and learning strategy and, as such, we need to ensure that all children and parents are aware of, and agree to, the code of conduct outlined below. This supports our usual acceptable usage agreements.

The agreement below is developed within an overarching aim to provide the very best teaching and learning opportunities whilst at the same time protecting our children and staff. It is essential that all parties are respectful of each other and that the use of video technology does not become an invasion of privacy.

Remote Learning Curriculum Design – A Blended Learning Approach

Statement of intent

At Bedford Hall Methodist Primary School, we understand the need to continually deliver high quality education, including during periods of remote working – whether for an individual pupil or many. The school vision ‘Learn, Love, Live: Without Limits’ is interwoven within our curriculum intent and design. We recognise the importance of maintaining high expectations in all areas of school life and ensuring that all pupils have access to the learning resources and support they need to succeed.

Through the implementation of this policy, we aim to:

- Minimise the disruption to pupils’ education and the delivery of the curriculum.
- Teach a planned and well-sequenced curriculum so that knowledge and skills are built incrementally, with a good level of clarity about what is intended to be taught and practised in each subject.
- Set tasks and activities so that pupils have meaningful and ambitious work each day in a number of different subjects which reflects the curriculum which would be taught in school.
- Ensure provision is in place so that all pupils have access to high quality learning resources and strategies –which are consistently applied across school.
- To be responsive to children’s learning to enable teachers to adjust the pace or difficulty of what is being taught in response to questions or assessments.
- To differentiate work to ensure the accessibility for all pupils; especially children with SEND.
- Provide printed resources, such as workbooks, for pupils who do not have suitable online access.
- Ensure all pupils have the provision they need to complete their work to the best of their ability, and to remain happy, healthy, and supported during periods of remote learning.
- Remain in communication with parents using Class Dojo.
- To set work on the learning platforms Class Dojo and Purple Mash and provide feedback to children around their learning and next steps.

Blended Learning

In the event of the need for a group of learners to work from home, activities and resources will be shared on the learning platforms Class Dojo and Purple Mash on a daily or weekly basis. These will be broken down into daily sessions which will replicate, where possible, the timetable followed in school. Printed work packs will be provided for children who are unable to access online resources. (In the event of a full school closure, the work will also be made available on the school's website). Planning will align to the planned school curriculum and link to our curriculum drivers of 'culture, possibilities and diversity.'

To support with teaching and learning, links will be shared within planning to further quality online resources such as IXL, Oxford Owl and TT Rockstars. Teachers may review the DfE's list of online education resources and utilise these tools as necessary, in addition to existing resources. If online support is not readily accessible, other learning aids will be provided, such as knowledge organisers, posters and prompt sheets.

One concern about home learning is that activities set by teachers may be predominantly screen-based, given that work is frequently set through the use of educational technology. Teachers will ensure lessons aren't limited to on-screen activities by setting tasks that can be completed away from a device, to offer a balance of activity type.

Where websites are used, teachers will ensure that these are appropriate and free to use for parents/ children. Teachers will send out to individuals logins and passwords where necessary. Staff and pupils will only use their school-registered accounts to access learning platforms. Personal accounts must not be used under any circumstances for the purpose of remote learning.

Purple Mash

How can Purple Mash support remote learning?

Purple Mash's tools and activities run within a web browser and do not require additional software to be installed. Therefore, they are not device-specific and as long as your child has access to a device that can browse the web, then they should be able to access Purple Mash.

Purple Mash has features to support remote learning and safe communication.

Below is a summary of how Purple Mash will support your child's learning during a period of remote learning:

- The teacher will assign tasks for your child to complete at home (called 2dos)
- Children will 'hand in' tasks when they are ready for their teacher to view.

- All work is saved to your child's account and work cannot, accidentally or otherwise, be saved to another child's folder.
- Children can only access their own work and cannot view or edit the work of peers.
- Teachers will give feedback on work completed and dojos will be awarded on completed tasks.
- Children can return to previous work to edit and improve after feedback from the teacher, replicating the learning process in school.
- Teachers can safely communicate with their class using 2Email (a simulated email system) enabling one-way or two-way communication.
- Children and staff can share learning and discussions using 2Blog and the digital Display Boards, which can replicate learning walls in the classroom.
- The integrated, creative tools in Purple Mash can be used at home, without the children needing to download or purchase additional software.
- Children can build their individual work portfolios for teachers to access.

Children will be asked to upload completed work on to Purple Mash. Class teachers will provide instructions around this. Deadlines for work to be uploaded will be shared as work is assigned. Most work will be asked to be uploaded by the end of each day.

Live Learning

Live Learning may take place only when deemed necessary and beneficial to enhancing teaching and learning. Live learning can take place in a variety of ways from delivering parts of a lesson (e.g. introducing a new learning concept) or delivering bespoke interventions to a group of children. Live learning will typically last around 15 minute sessions and an adult should be present and visible on the screen with the child. More information on the use of this can be found in our Pupil Remote Learning Policy which can be found on the school's website. If Live Learning takes place, school will use Microsoft Education as a platform for this. Parental /carer consent is required to use Microsoft Education. Parents/carers and children must both sign and agree to follow the 'Acceptable Usage Agreement for Live Learning and Conduct.' (Appendix 2 of Pupil Remote Learning Policy). Without this consent and agreement, children will not be able to take part in any live lessons or teacher/pupil check-ins.

It is important children, parents and staff follow the Online Safety rules stated in the 'Pupil Remote Learning Policy'. Any Safeguarding concerns must be shared with school straight away in line with the policy.

Coverage of learning

Planning for blended learning will align with the projected delivery of the school curriculum to provide consistency and progression. This ensures children are given the best opportunity to reconnect to the curriculum when on-site learning recommences. A weekly timetable, with suggested timings will be uploaded on to Purple Mash.

KS1 & KS2

- 4 x English lessons following a theme. Use of a stimulus to engage the children followed by learning around word and sentence level work. One piece of extended writing will be set each week, which is linked to the stimulus.
- Daily reading
- One reading comprehension per week.
- Spelling and phonics – At least one task per week focusing on key spelling patterns
- Daily Maths lessons, following the White Rose Scheme of Learning, which align with the method of delivery used in school. Learners will be able to build upon previous learning and develop a deeper understanding through practising fluency skills, reasoning and problem solving.
- Daily number facts/key skills practice
- Wider curriculum – daily sessions on a theme taught within the curriculum year group. This may be a pre-recorded lesson on Science, History, Art or RE followed by a task, or a knowledge organiser/resource sheet/powerpoint followed by a task. The subject being explored will change daily to ensure a broad and balanced curriculum in line with the school based curriculum.
- Physical exercise, for example, join in with Joe Wicks PE Coach on You Tube or go for a walk/jog/bike ride.

Children will be expected to complete work set daily between 9am and 3.15pm. We do not expect children to complete activities outside of these hours. It is also important children take regular breaks in the morning, afternoon and at lunchtime where they will not be directed.

EYFS

The children in Nursery and Reception will be set some weekly fun activities to do, centred around the new EYFS Statutory Framework and Development Matters Framework. These activities will be presented in a grid format (2 Year Old Nursery) and a weekly timetable for Pre-School and Reception. These will be available on Class Dojo. These will include:

- Listening to stories recorded by our EYFS staff.
- Fine motor / handwriting practice activities.
- Daily Reading on Oxford Owl (Reception).
- Daily White Rose Maths activities.
- Challenge activities – such as a shape hunt, making minibeasts, masks etc....
- Topic based activities linked to subjects such as science, history, geography, PSHE etc

- Daily physical exercise – such as joining in with Joe Wicks PE coach on You Tube, going for a walk or trying some yoga.
- Phonics activities – practise letter sounds and high-frequency words.
- Number activities – number hunts, chants, songs and rhymes.

We encourage parents to upload evidence of children's learning onto their child's profile on Class Dojo. EYFS staff give daily feedback, during working hours, to any uploads.

Communication

Communication between home and school is key for effective blended learning to take place. During the period of blended learning, the school will maintain regular contact with parents and carers to:

- Check the well-being of their child and how well they are able to access the activities provided to ensure appropriate support is in place.
- Reinforce the importance of their child staying safe online and direct parents/carers to useful resources to help them keep their children safe online.
- Ensure parents are aware of what their child is being asked to do, e.g. sites they have been asked to use and staff they will interact with.
- Encourage them to set age-appropriate parental controls on devices and internet filters to block malicious websites.

The Learning Platforms, Class Dojo and Purple Mash will be used as the main form of communication during a period of remote learning for Year 1 to Year 6. Teachers will upload activities for children to complete and provide feedback and next steps, as necessary. Children can also comment about the work and aspects which they enjoyed or were challenged by. Teachers will set differentiated activities, where appropriate, to ensure the needs of all learners are met.

Class Dojo will also be used for wider communication between teachers and parent and carers. Teachers will respond to any communications within the working day.

Any important whole school changes will be communicated via Parentmail and Class Dojo.

A full copy of the Pupil Remote Learning Policy can be found on the school website. This is a live policy which is under regular review.
