When you get to school, you will hang your coat up and put you book bag away in your tray. Then you will find your name and put it in the basket, so everyone knows that you are in school and play with the different resources in the classroom.

Are you looking forward to coming to school?

You will learn and do lots of new and exciting things at school. Jack and Ava chose to go outside. They must put on their waterproof coats and wellington boots. At school you are allowed to play out in all weathers: sun, rain and snow!

Lukas enjoys making models. His favourite thing to do is use the empty packaging to make model cars and houses. Ava, Jack and Zoe like playing in the water. Jack is good at building with the blocks. "I can make it taller than you," he says to Zoe.

It's so much fun learning new things and making new friends.
What do you like to do with your friends?

If you are hungry or thirsty, throughout the day you will be provided with fruit and milk. Your teacher will encourage you to try new fruits and healthy snack. You will be given a chance to serve yourself and your friends.

It's great to help others!

If you need the toilet, just put your hand up and let your teacher know. If you need help, or have an accident, then let your teacher know and they will help you out. Jack needs the toilet, so he puts up his hand and asks the teacher. "Please may I go to the toilet miss?" He asks. "Yes of course you can." his teacher replies.

Jack likes the bathroom at school as the toilets are just the right size for him to use. When he has finished he leaves the toilet nice and clean for the next person to use by flushing it. He washes his hands with warm water and soap and dries them with a paper towel.

Lukas is ready and waiting for his teacher to tell him that his grown up has arrived. When his mum arrives, the teacher tells him he can go. You must wait for your teacher to see your grown up as it is their job to keep you safe. "Goodbye everyone," he says and he goes home with his mum who is waiting outside the door.

He can't wait to tell his mum about what he has done at school today.
